SONGS OF SALVATION

FILL ME WITH THY SPIRIT!

Tunes—Stella, 120, Saginaw, 118.

O Jesus, Saviour, hear my cry,

And all my need just now supply!

New power I want, and strength and light.

That I may conquer in the fight,

Oh, let me have, wherever I go,

Thy strength to conquer every foe!

Oh, make my life one blazing fire

Of pure and fervent heart-desire

The lost to find, the low to raise,

And give them cause Thy name to praise.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

I show Thy power to every foe!

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

Let love be first, let love be last,

Its light o'er all my life be cast;

Come now, my Saviour, from above

And deluge all my soul with love.

So that wherever I may go (praise),

Thy love shall conquer every foe.

COME TO THE CROSS

Tunes—While shepherds watched, 65

Come, weary sinner, to the cross,

The Saviour bids you come;

Come, trusting in His precious blood,

Wait not—there still is room.

Chorus

Jesus now is passing by,

I'll go out to meet Him;

While He is so very nigh,

I'll go out to greet Him.

Oh! why delay your long return?

The Spirit gently pleads:

Come to the cross whereon for you

The dying Saviour bleeds.

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

He waits to fill your soul with joy,

And all your sins forgive;

His love for you no tongue can tell,

Oh, trust His grace and live!

SPIRITUAL FRUITFULNESS

Was the Subject Dealt with at the United Holiness Meeting.

A fine crowd of people received a real spiritual blessing from God at the United Holiness Meeting in the Parliament Street (Toronto) Citadel on Friday, April 6th.

The meeting was led by Brigadier Bell, in his usual inspiring, real, red-hot religion style. A selected Bible portion was read by Cadet Lowe. Heartfelt prayer was offered on behalf of our nation.

The time usually allotted to testimonies bearing on Holiness was only too willingly conceded to Corporal (Captain) Shaw, this being his last Friday night in Toronto before returning overseas. His words certainly inspired and thrilled us as he entreated the people of God to be whole-hearted and filled with the Holy Ghost. Our prayers go with him.

A Holiness song was feelingly sung by eight Cadets. The message from God's Word was then clearly given by Major the Bishop.

"Secret of Fruitfulness" was very plainly shown as the Major dealt with the different aspects of fruit-bearing, pruning necessary to the vine, sunshine, and darkness, also needed to perfect. So spiritually, while abiding in Him, different circumstances will in our fruit.

A shout, but earnest, prayer meeting resulted in one soul claiming the blessing of a clean heart.—C. Otway.

FIFTY AT KNEE DRILL

Four Beckers in Night Meeting at Montreal, N.B.

We are steadily marching on at Montreal, and doing our best to keep the flag flying. Easter Sunday was a record-breaker. Fifty comrades attended Kneer Drill and a blessed time was experienced.

Ensign Ham spoke at the Holiness Meeting and at night Adjutant and Mrs. Hurd took a prominent part in the meeting and four souls sought the Saviour.

In the afternoon open-air forty-five were present, and at night two open-air were conducted, causing a great stir. The Citadel was packed to the doors. Deputy Bandmaster Harry Bates (St. John I.) was with us for the week-end, and helped the Band considerably.

We are looking forward to the visit of the Commissioner for the opening of the new Young People's Hall, which we think is the best in the country. Ensign Ham is alone in Mrs. Ham being ill in Toronto. We all are praying that God will restore her to us again, speedily. The Easter "War Cry" were all sold out and one hundred were sent to the front.—E.

CAMROSE

Captains Fred and George Mundy from Edmonton (11) led the week-end meetings at Camrose.

The Sunday night meeting was well attended, and the words spoken by the Captains struck home conviction to many hearts. Three souls sought and found Salvation.

For the week-end preceding we had with us Sergeant-Major Christopher Young, People's Sergeant-Major "Frank" from No. 111, and Brother Wingfield from Edmonton I.

BRIGADIER AND MRS. McLEAN

Lead Sunday's Meetings at Vancouver IV, assisted by Staff-Captain Smith and the No. 1 Young People's Band at the night meeting.

On Sunday, March 24th, Brigadier and Mrs. McLean led the meetings at Vancouver IV, assisted by Staff-Captain Smith and the No. 1 Young People's Band at the night meeting.

In the Holiness meeting the Brigadier spoke about the weak things of the world confounding the people. In the afternoon the Brigadier had a very interesting meeting with the children, and we had the joy of seeing six children giving their hearts to Jesus. For the benefit of those who had got saved the Staff-Captain spoke on "How to Keep Saved," which was very profitable to Company Guards and Young People alike.

We entered into our night meeting with the real Army spirit prevailing and a packed Hall. The Band played several selections, and deserve great credit for the music was grand. The Staff-Captain spoke a few words, Mrs. McLean read from the Scriptures, and the Brigadier spoke on "The Never-Failing Jesus." One boy came out for Salvation. The newly-promoted Captain Fox was also welcomed into the Corps.

WON SPECIAL PRIZE

For Fine Turn-out on Good Friday

We are having some real good times and receiving much blessing in our meetings of late at East Toronto. Recently we welcomed back into our Corps Brother and Sister Willson and family. They both expressed their delight in coming back to the old battleground once again.

Our Young People's Work is flourishing under the able leadership of Young People's Sergeant-Major W. E. Turner and his assistant. Our numbers are increasing, and it was with much pleasure and gratification to all to know we had secured a special prize for the number which turned out to the Parade on Good Friday. Every effort was put forth to encourage the Young People to make it a success, and by the good blessing of God, we will go on to do greater things for the interests of the Young People in our district.

FEATHERS AND KINGS

Were Discarded at the Penitent Form by an Earnest Seeker at Melville.

We thank God for the way our Corps at Melville is advancing under the leadership of Captain H. Smith and Lieutenant H. R. Gray. Many souls are weeping their way to the Cross.

We are all pleased to have Brother Pearson (Kesteven) with us again. Our meetings last week-end, beginning on Friday, were very good and much enjoyed by all who attended. On Good Friday morning we had a grand march, headed by the Young People's Band, and we held the service in the Union Church. The Captain spoke on "The Crucifixion," which was very profitable.

At night, after a large open-air meeting, in which twenty-five comrades took part, we had a blessed time in our own Hall. A large crowd assembled.

On Saturday night we had two large open-air, followed by a red-hot inside meeting. The Captain gave a forceful talk on "Amusements."

On Sunday morning we had a splendid Company Meeting of forty-three Young People. Lieutenant Gray spoke in the afternoon and six souls sought Christ. Most of them volunteered.

At night a large crowd attended. The Captain spoke on "The Risen Christ," and one young woman sought Salvation. While at the Penitent Form the feathers came off her hat and the rings off her fingers. Two more have since got saved.

PINE ATTENDANCES

At Week-end Meetings in Nelson, Led by Brigadier McLean.

Brigadier McLean led the week-end meetings at Nelson, N.C. The meetings were full of blessing and the crowds were the best we have had for some time. In the morning jail service five men held up their hands for prayer.

On Saturday evening the Life-Saving Scouts and Life-Saving Guards, with the help of the Seniors, put on a good programme, at which the Brigadier presided.

We have welcomed Brother and Sister Ramay and family, from Fernie, where Brother Ramay has been a Young People's Sergeant-Major. Our comrades have taken over the Bible Class and is doing well.

HIS LAST CHANCE

Rackliffe Was Deeply Impressed as Captain Was Speaking.

On Saturday and Sunday, April 6th-7th, the meetings at Orillia were led by Captain Simco. The attendances were good; and on Sunday night two men sought Salvation. One a backslider for over twelve years. His brother met with a very bad accident on the railway, losing his right foot on Saturday night. The Soldiers of the Corps had been praying for him for some months and pleaded with him to come back to God. He said in his testimony that while the Captain was speaking he felt that was going to be his last chance to come back.—W. Wishart.

BRIGADIER & MRS. MORRISON

Lead Week-end Meetings at Orillia I.—Twenty-one Long Service Badges Presented—Six Soldiers Forth.

Visits from Brigadier Morrison in eagerly anticipated and thoroughly enjoyed, and accompanied us on this occasion by Mrs. Morrison, whom we were all pleased to see. The week-end meetings at Orillia I. were doubly appreciated. The enthusiasm was intense. A solemn, bright, heartfelt testimonies were given in the Saturday night meeting. Both the Brigadier and Mrs. Morrison gave stirring addresses.

All day Sunday the meetings were good. The Holiness meeting was a time of blessing. In the afternoon the Brigadier awarded Long Service Badges to twenty-one comrades, who secured records of from six to twenty-five years.

The Brigadier followed with an old-time fiery Gospel address, which impressed and touched the hearts of those present, and six souls decided for Christ.—H. W. Scott.

THE FIELD SECRETARY

Presides at an Interesting Musical Service.

A Musical Service was given at Leger Street (Toronto) by Captain and Mrs. Laurie (Earle) on Thursday, April 10th, at which 200 persons were present.

The audience, which filled the Citadel, was delighted with the wonderful items rendered. There was much variety, even to the old hymns utilized to draw music from within aid of a string and a platoon. "Hail, Sweet Home" was by the Captain with these materials.

The vocal solos and duets were also much appreciated.

ADVANCING AT ODEUR

Four Beckers—Impressive Easter Service.

Some good meetings are being conducted at Odeur by Captain and Mrs. Fox. On Monday night, April 1st, a good Easter Service was arranged by Captain and Mrs. Fox. One of the most impressive parts of the meeting was "Cross" by eleven of our young girls, robed in white. Following this was some special Easter singing, "O Lord, How Good Thou Art," by Captain and Mrs. Fox. "Easter Dawn," which was very much appreciated.

On Sunday, April 7th, we had the joy of seeing two souls seek and find God.

FAREWELL AT KENTVILLE

We had a large crowd at Lieutenant Thornhill's farewell at Kentville. One soul sought Salvation, making three for the past week. His stay has been one of blessing and has encouraged us to go on.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ADVANCES

During the Winter Campaign in the Quebec and East Ontario Division the following results were obtained, writes Adjutant Burrin, the Divisional Young People's Secretary:

- 312 Young People converted.

- 17 Senior Soldiers made.
- 108 New children secured.

- 3 Corps Cadet Guardians secured.
- 8 Appointees for Officership.
- 59 Scouts and Guards secured.

The Campaign was entered into in almost every Corps very heartily by the Officers, and we thank God for the results and trust with His blessing that it will only be a forerunner of greater things to come.

The Life-Saving Guards and Scouts of Montreal turned out with the recent Tag Day; and their bright smiling faces and uniforms were a great attraction on the street. The Life-Saving Guards are putting on United Demonstrations at the different Corps in the City and as this is a new venture, nothing of this kind being attempted in the past, it is attracting a great deal of interest, and the Guards are doing well in the work as well. Encouraging the fact that they are learning rapidly under the tuition of their respective Leaders.

The week-end meetings outside had a very good attendance, and God's power was felt in our midst. Several souls came out to the night meeting for Salvation. We feel Riverdale has advanced very much in their leadership, and we are confident of a big Self-Denial victory.—E. E.

WEST COAST NATIVES

Appreciate the Efforts of The Salvation Army to Bless and Help Them—Brigadier McLean Gives an Account of a Recent Visit He Paid to Several Corps

LEAVING Vancouver one Saturday day by the steamer "Princess Sophia," I landed safely at Wrangell, Alaska, three days later, writes Brigadier McLean. "Adjutant Habkirk and his boys were on the wharf to greet me and we had a very fine time during my visit. I had two most enjoyable meetings. The Adjutant has taken well hold of his work throughout the District and reports having some grand of enthusiasm and much good was accomplished. "We went to Metlakatla on Thursday. Mr. Lear placed his fine boat at our disposal and accompanied us. Ensign Auckland has been in charge of the work here for some time and has been doing well. He extended to myself and the Officers a very cordial reception and we had two good meetings with three souls seeking Christ. I commissioned the Local Officers for 1918 and enrolled three recruits. Metlakatla has twenty-eight soldiers in good standing now.

"On account of a raging storm we could not return to Prince Rupert that night, but we were entertained very nicely by the Native comrades. On Saturday morning I boarded the Grand Frank train and went down to Hazelton, where we had a rousing Salvation Meeting. Hazelton is an outpost from Glen Vowell, where Adjutant and Mrs. Jackson are in charge. The Adjutant was on hand at Hazelton to help to make the meeting more interesting. We had a real good crowd and a fine time all around. After the meeting we drove seven miles to the Salvation Army village of Glen Vowell, where I was to conduct our first Winter Congress, on the Sunday, and I am glad to report a great time of joy and good results. Crowds came down from Klapixan and Hazelton, so that we had big attendances all day and the meetings were very lively and all seemed to receive a blessing and some spiritual help. I commissioned the Local Officers for 1918, and we had the pleasure of seeing eleven souls for the Sunday. Sergeant-Major Sessmith was promoted to the rank of Ensign, and Sergeant Brown will be the Corps Sergeant-Major for the future. Adjutant and Mrs. Jackson are doing well in the work at this village. I feel sure this Winter Congress has proved a great uplift to them and that the work will go on much better in the future at this place. Corps Cadet Elsie Jackson is also doing well with the School and making considerable progress. The School has been enlarged and the attendance increased.

A Visit to Hazelton

"On the Monday night we returned to Hazelton where we had a large gathering and a good Salvation Meeting. Some of the converts from Glen Vowell were present and joined in the rejoicing over the great things that God had done for them at Glen Vowell on Sunday. This outpost has been opened up a year and I was pleased to commission the first batch of ten Local Officers to assist Ensign and Mrs. Hobland, who are in charge here under Adjutant Jackson. We certainly had a great meeting with good results—six souls crying to God for mercy. This shows the Native people coming to Christ, and they sing and shout and sometimes even dance in their joy.

"During the week following I visited several other towns and villages in connection with my work in Northern British Columbia, and found much encouragement. The next Saturday I returned to Anderson, another Salvation Army village, where Captain and Mrs. Mitchell are in charge, and found they had made great preparations for the future work at this place. The Hall has been renovated and fixed up, was only for the Army Meetings but for the School. The Captain has also made considerable repairs on the Quarters, and they are now very comfortable indeed. The only disappointment about this village is that many of the Natives have been compelled to move away on account of their work and the village is left with a very small population. We had real good meetings on Sunday, with one soul coming forward on the Lord's side.

Twenty-nine Seekers

"I thoroughly enjoyed my visit to Alaska and Northern British Columbia. Twenty-nine souls were saved in all on this tour and I feel sure there is a great future for the Salvation Army work in this part of the country. The Natives fully appreciate all we are doing for them. They give every attention to our Salvation addresses and are always eager to learn what they call the 'White Songs,' which was able to attract them several of our old favorites, which they sang very heartily."

VISITOR AT SARNIA

Another ten-dollar donation is to be made for the First Fund from Colfax, Rebekah, No. 25, L.O.O.F., making a total now of $86. We have had with us the last few days Adjutant Martin, in the interest of the London Hospital, and the people of Sarnia are showing by their gifts what they think of The Army.—A.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S COMPANY MEETING, PEKIN, CHINA

The methods of The Salvation Army appeal strongly to the Chinese, who enjoy our bright and varied services. All about Pekin children may already be heard singing snatches of Army choruses which they have picked up.

ONE OF THE MOST PITIFUL PICTURES EVER PRINTED IN "THE WAR CRY"

In the Dutch East Indies, on the Islands of Java and Sumatra, Colonies for Lepers have been established by The Salvation Army and plans for a very considerable extension of this work have been approved. The Bandmen shown in this picture are Lepers. The dread disease has affected all of them in some way or the other; the Bandmaster, for instance, has lost his nose through this destroying malady. How much of otherwise unknown joy, alike to players and the other members of the band, the existence of the Band means can readily be imagined.
